Edds executed on the 8th day of Sept. 1896, to Elbert Bales, and bearing interest from the 1st day of January 1897, and due and payable the 1st day of January 1898, and assigned by Elbert Bales to your orator on the day of 189 that no part of said bond has been paid to your ^{orator}, by Henry T. Edds before his death or by his Administrator since his death ~~Elbert Bales before the assignment to your orator;~~ said bond is here filed with this bill marked "A" and asked to That the said Henry T. Edds was, in his lifetime and at the time of his death, possessed of some personal estate, but not enough to pay all his just debts and funeral expenses; and, also was entitled and seized of considerable real estate, situated in Lee County, Va. and the bond here sued on, is the balance of the purchase price of a tract of land, purchased by Henry T. Edds in his life time from Elbert Bales, Containing about 40. acres. That the said Henry T. Edds being so seized and possessed departed this life about the day of 189, intestate without issue, leaving a widow, ^{Elizabeth} ~~Alice~~ Edds, and mother Amanda Bales, and brother Harrison Edds and sisters, Margaret Ware, John Edds, Maud Edds who are entitled to such of his estate as may remain after the payment of all debts, expenses of Administration, &c; that due Administration of the estate of the said Henry T. Edds was duly granted by the County Court of Lee County to W.P. Weston Sheriff of said County, on the 21st day of March 1898. That the said intestates real estate consists of the 40 acre tract aforesaid, and a one-fifth undivided interest in the lands owned by his father Hewt Edds at the time of his death, which

That the said Amanda Bales and Harrison Edds hath become possessed of the whole of the said intestate's personal estate and that his real estate has ever since been in their possession and the rents and profits received by them for their own use. To the end therefore, that justice may be done in the premises your ^{orator} prays that W.P. Weston Administrator of the estate of Henry, T. Edds dec. ^{Elisabeth} ~~Eds~~, Amanda Bales, Harrison Edds, ^{Margaret} ~~Eds~~, ^{Mart} ~~Eds~~, Ida Edds, Maud Edds, the last four being infants under the age of 21 years; be made parties defendants to this bill and answer the same but not on oath that being waived; that a proper Guardian ad litem be assigned to answer and defend for the infants; that an account may be taken of all the debts due and owing by the said intestate at the time of his death and remaining unpaid; that an account may also be taken of the intestate's personal estate and effects, that should have come into the Administrator's hands; that in the event that the personal estate does not pay the decedent's debts, then the aforesaid real estate be sold to satisfy your orator's and other creditors debts; that the proceeds of the sale of the 40 acre tract be applied exclusively to the payment of your orator's purchase money bond which remains yet unpaid; And that your orator have all other further and general relief as his case may require or to equity shall seem meet.
